An Unforgettable Memoir of the Boy Who Grew Up to Build a Full and Joyous Life at Kalaupapa, and Still Calls It Home

When Henry Nalaielua was diagnosed with Hansen’s disease in 1936 and taken from his home and family, he began a journey of exile that led him to Kalaupapa—the remote settlement with the tragic history on the Hawaiian island of Molokai. Henry’s story captures the essence of life in this world with all its whims and fancies and dreams. It takes you through the tumultuous health issues and personal challenges that he faced, including the introduction of sulfone drugs in the 1940s. Today, fewer than 30 patients remain. This is Henry’s story—an unforgettable memoir of the boy who grew up to build a full and joyous life at Kalaupapa, and still calls it home.

No Footprints in the Sand is one of only a few memoirs ever shared with the public by a Kalaupapa patient. Following the Footprints on the Sands of Time, biographies for young people, by L.E.B. Shaffer

Following the Footprints on the Sands of Time - Bethel A. Ogot - 2003

While Allan Ogot’s circuits of influence have been very wide, and while he has participated in conferences and forums around the world, he has never visited Kikuyu and personal ancestry in Kenya—though he has had numerous opportunities to accept distinguished chairs overseas. Extraordinarily, Allan Ogot has sustained his incisive and serious literary and cultural commentary, shifting and challenging contours within the Kenya literature, African, navigating changing economic and political circumstances. His steady hand and persistent commitment to the highest ideals of scholarship and engagement community provide remarkable models for all who are dedicating themselves to the literature and the literature of Africa, and to the literature of Kikuyu.

This autobiographical provides a commentary on the history of Kenya as seen through Allan Ogot’s life experiences.

Footprints on the Sand - Catherine Creek De Camp - 2021-02-24
This collection of the de Camps' work, simply and in collaboration with each other, was assembled in honor of their appearance as joint Guests of Honor at Gen Con, June 1981 in Milwaukee. It is a selection of short stories, verse, non-fiction, and excerpts drawn from almost every facet of the de Camps' diverse writings—fantasy, science fiction, children's stories; poetry; humor, romantic, and pragmatic; notes on prehistory, the evolution of weaponry, and the development of imaginative fiction; the origins of engineering; of Atlantis, Conan, and magic. This literary feast includes several new pieces, such as Catherine's "Should Your Child Read Science Fiction?" Others range from "The Coming of the Engineer" (USSCF) to "Windfall" (CCdC) to "Eudoric's Unicorn" (USSCF). Also included are extended introductory remarks about Sprague and Catherine de Camp by Robert A. Heinlein, Lin Carter, Isaac Asimov, Poul Anderson, Andrew Offutt, Patricia Jackson, and George Scithers. The de Camps have passed on since this book was published, and Advent is proud to have it in print as a memorial to them both. With a color photograph of the de Camps as frontispiece, and black-and-white illustrations by C. H. Burnett. Also note that some hardback copies are still available direct from the publisher.
